Product overview

The Nastrino Missione di Liberazione Kuwait is a commemorative military ribbon for veterans and collectors linked to Operation Desert Storm (17 Jan–28 Feb 1991). It is intended for service members who meet the eligibility criteria established by the Government of Saudi Arabia, and for collectors of military surplus, duty and tactical memorabilia.

Definition: a 37 mm commemorative ribbon (nastrino) representing service in the Kuwait Liberation/Desert Storm campaign. The ribbon is suitable for display on ribbon bars, multi-ribbon holders, or as a collectible item.

Main features

Carefully made to reflect the ribbon’s historic colors and emblem, this nastrino is offered in a standard 37 mm format with customization options for attachment and packaging.

- Historic color scheme: central green stripe with white, black and red edges representing hope, peace, determination and sacrifice.
- Central emblem: gold palm with two upward-facing crossed swords symbolizing strength and victory.
- Standard size: 37 mm width, suitable for standard ribbon bars and displays.
- Custom attachment options: single rear fittings, clamps or screws available.
- Packaging choices: standard packing or slightly domed “Elite” presentation; can be mounted on multi-ribbon holders.
- Collector and veteran appeal: meaningful recognition for service and a notable item for military surplus collections.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this nastrino as part of a uniform ribbon bar, on a multi-ribbon display, or as a framed collectible. It is suitable for veterans verifying eligibility, for ceremonial displays, or for collectors of military and police duty memorabilia.

Quick answer: attach it to a standard 37 mm ribbon bar or place it in a display case. In most cases, veterans who meet the Saudi government’s eligibility criteria are the intended recipients, while collectors and reenactors may purchase reproductions or commemorative versions for display.

Care and notes

Store and handle the ribbon gently to preserve its colors and metal emblem. Choose attachment and packaging options at checkout to match your intended use (wearing, display or collecting).

- Keep away from moisture and prolonged sunlight to avoid fading.
- When worn, secure fittings (clamps or screws) should be checked periodically.
- Verify eligibility if claiming official award status; this product can also serve as a collectible item.
- Limited availability: demand among veterans and collectors can be high, so stock may be limited.

FAQ

Q: Who is eligible to receive the Nastrino Missione di Liberazione Kuwait?

A: The ribbon is awarded to military personnel who served during Operation Desert Storm and meet the eligibility criteria set by the Government of Saudi Arabia. Eligibility is determined by official service records.

Q: Can I buy this nastrino if I am not a veteran?

A: Yes. Reproductions or commemorative versions are commonly sold to collectors and the public, while official award status requires meeting government criteria.

Q: What are the attachment options available?

A: Options include single rear fittings, clamps or screw attachments. Choose the fitting that matches your ribbon bar or display during checkout.

Q: What does the ribbon’s design represent?

A: The central green stripe symbolizes hope and renewal; the white, black and red edges represent peace, determination and sacrifice. The gold palm and crossed swords denote strength and victory.

Q: Is the ribbon ready for mounting on multi-ribbon holders?

A: Yes. The 37 mm standard size fits most ribbon bars and multi-ribbon holders. You can select mounting options appropriate for display or wear.

Q: How should I care for and store this nastrino?

A: Store in a dry, shaded place to prevent fading, and avoid contact with harsh chemicals. Check attachments occasionally if the ribbon is worn on a uniform.

Tip: Choose the attachment and packaging variant that best fits your intended use—wearing, display, or collecting—and browse related military ribbon and display accessories to complete your ribbon bar or collection.
