How to use / When it’s useful

Use the ribbon on a competition uniform, attached to a medal, or arranged on a ribbon mount for display. Choose screw fittings when you need the most secure hold during active use; choose clamps for easier, faster installation.

Quick answer: attach the ribbon to your medal or uniform using the chosen fitting and size. In most cases, athletes select 37 mm for maximum presence and 20 mm when a subtler look is required. For collectors, loose ribbons and multi-place mounts make organized displays straightforward.

- Keep the ribbon dry and avoid aggressive cleaning chemicals; wipe metal parts with a soft, dry cloth.
- Check fittings before use—screws should be tightened, clamps checked for grip to prevent loss during activity.
- Choose the size and format that match your medal or uniform for correct fit and appearance.
