Product overview

The Nastrino Gran Croce Pro Piis Meriti Melitensi is an honor ribbon issued within the Sovereign Military Order of Malta (SMOM) for clergy and religious figures recognized for service to the Church and charitable works. It is intended for members, collectors, and those who need an accurate ceremonial ribbon for formal or devotional use.

Definition: This is a 37 mm ceremonial ribbon bearing a central enameled white octagonal cross and the inscription "Pro Piis Meriti Melitensi," signifying merit for religious service.

Main features

Carefully made to reflect the Order’s tradition, the ribbon is available in standard and slightly domed Elite versions, with optional mounting choices to suit uniforms or display boards.

- Official format: 37 mm regulatory size
- Black fabric with two outer red pales symbolizing charity and strength
- Central enameled white octagonal cross, emblematic of the Order
- Available as flat regulatory or slightly domed Elite style
- Optional mounting: clip (morsetto) or screw attachments for secure fitting
- Can be supplied mounted on multi-ribbon metal bars for formal display

How to use / When it’s useful

Use the ribbon on clerical or ceremonial uniforms, during official Order of Malta events, or as part of a collector’s display. Choose the flat format for strict regulation compliance and the Elite domed version for better visibility at formal occasions.

Quick answer: fit the ribbon using the chosen clip or screw attachment to match your uniform or display base. In most cases, combine it on a multi-ribbon metal bar when you need to present several honors neatly and in alignment.

Care and notes

Handle and store the ribbon to preserve fabric and enamel details; select mounting options based on uniform rules or personal preference. Note that availability may be limited.

- Keep away from moisture and abrasive surfaces to protect the enamel and fabric
- Attach using clip or screws depending on uniform requirements
- When displaying multiple ribbons, use a proper metal bar to avoid misalignment
- Limited stock: order early if needed for ceremonies or duty wear

FAQ

Q: What exactly is the Nastrino Gran Croce Pro Piis Meriti Melitensi?

A: It is a ceremonial 37 mm ribbon awarded within the Sovereign Military Order of Malta for religious and charitable service, featuring a central enameled white octagonal cross.

Q: Who typically wears this ribbon?

A: It is mainly for members of the Order’s ecclesiastical class, clergy, and others recognized for notable service to the Church and charitable activities.

Q: What variants are available?

A: Two primary formats: the flat regulatory version and the slightly domed Elite variant. Both include the central enameled cross and the black-and-red ribbon pattern.

Q: How is the ribbon attached to a uniform?

A: You can choose a clip (morsetto) or screw attachment. Select the option that complies with your uniform regulations or provides the most secure fit.

Q: Can the ribbon be mounted with other decorations?

A: Yes — the ribbon can be placed on multi-ribbon metal bars to present several honors together, ensuring an orderly and aligned display for ceremonies or duty wear.

Q: Is this suitable for collectors of military surplus or ceremonial duty items?

A: Yes. While this is a religious honor ribbon, collectors of military surplus, ceremonial duty gear, and related police or tactical uniform items often include such ribbons in their collections or displays.

Tip: Choose the variant (flat or Elite) and the attachment (clip or screws) that match your uniform rules or display needs, and consider ordering mounts if you plan to show multiple ribbons together. Browse related ceremonial and display accessories to complete your set.
