Product overview

The Nastrino Fondazione Carnegie Argento is a ceremonial award ribbon for men and women recognized for acts of heroism during peace operations on Italian territory. It is intended for institutions, award presenters, collectors, and displays.

Definition: the Nastrino Fondazione Carnegie Argento is a 37 mm ribbon bearing a five-point silver star, and it represents the second-highest honor the Fondazione Carnegie can grant for acts of heroism.

Main features

Clear, durable design and official symbolism make this ribbon suitable for presentation and display.

- Distinctive design: central five-point silver star for formal recognition and prestige.
- High-quality materials: built to last while maintaining a refined appearance.
- Standard size: available in the 37 mm format.
- Two finish options: regular flat or domed Elite variant.
- Mounting accessories: available with a rear-attach screw mount or clamp-style holder.
- Official status: the second-highest onorificenza awarded by the Fondazione Carnegie for heroism.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: use the ribbon for official award presentations, formal displays, or as part of a curated collection of military surplus, tactical, and police memorabilia. In most cases, it is presented by organizations or kept on display to honor acts of courage.

The ribbon is suitable for award ceremonies, museum exhibits, institutional displays, and private collections that focus on duty and service recognition. Choose the flat or Elite domed finish based on presentation style and mounting preference.

Care and notes

Keep the ribbon in good condition with basic care and correct mounting.

- Store in a dry, cool place away from direct sunlight to preserve finish.
- Handle by edges; avoid contact with abrasive surfaces that can scratch the star.
- Verify mounting type (screw or clamp) before fitting to uniforms or display cases.
- Limited quantities: availability may be restricted, so consider ordering promptly if needed.
