How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use this nastrino for historical displays, ceremonial wear, or as part of a military surplus collection. It is suitable for collectors, reenactors and organisations that maintain period uniforms.

In most cases, mount the ribbon on a single ribbon holder with the preferred attachment (clamp or screws) or install it on a multi-position metal holder to group several ribbons together. It works well for police or duty ceremonial presentation and private display cabinets.

Care and notes

Basic care will keep the ribbon looking its best; handle gently and store in a dry place. Note that this is a commemorative reproduction intended as a symbol of service, not an original wartime award.

- Keep dry and avoid prolonged exposure to sunlight to preserve colours.
- Handle edges gently to prevent fraying; clean with a soft, dry cloth if needed.
- Select the correct mounting option (clamp or screws) when ordering to match your display or uniform needs.
- Limited stock: demand is high, so availability can be restricted.
