Product overview

The CC.NN. Divisione Tevere ribbon is a historic service ribbon originally assigned to members of the Italian Milizia Volontaria per la Sicurezza Nazionale (MVSN) who served with the Divisione Tevere during the Ethiopian War. It is intended for military collectors, museums, re-enactors, and military surplus or tactical gear enthusiasts.

Definition: a cloth service ribbon in red and white that replicates the original Divisione Tevere ribbon for display and collection purposes.

Main features

Faithful reproduction with options for mounting and display to suit collectors and display use.

- Historic design: Red and white colors faithful to the original Divisione Tevere ribbon.
- Quality materials: Made to resist handling and display; offered in regular flat format or slightly domed Elite variant.
- Mounting options: Choose a ribbon holder fitted with either a clamp (morsetto) or screw attachment at checkout.
- Multi-ribbon display: Can be mounted on multi-slot ribbon bars to group several ribbons on a single metal base.
- Collector appeal: Produced in limited quantities and sought after by military history collectors and military surplus buyers.

How to use / When it’s useful

Use this ribbon for display in a collection, museum exhibit, or period uniform for historical re-enactment. Select the mounting style (clamp or screws) that matches your display method before purchase.

Quick answer: ideal for collectors, displays, and historical exhibits. In most cases, choose the flat format for standard displays and the Elite slightly domed format when a raised profile is preferred.

Care and notes

Simple care will keep the ribbon in good condition for display and storage.

- Store away from direct sunlight and damp conditions to avoid fading and mildew.
- Clean gently with a soft brush or light vacuum; do not machine wash.
- Select the correct mounting option (clamp or screws) when ordering to avoid returns.
- Note: this is a historical collectible intended for study and display, not an active-service award.
- Limited stock: availability may be restricted due to collector demand.
