Product overview

The nastrino IV Corpo D'Armata Fronte Greco-Albanese is a reproduction ribbon representing the ribbon bar worn by members of the IV Corpo D'Armata who served on the Greek-Albanian front during World War II. It is intended for collectors, uniform restorers, reenactors, museums and military surplus retailers.

Definition: a nastrino is a small medal ribbon used on ribbon bars to represent a campaign or service award. This ribbon features black and maroon (amaranto) bands with the Italian tricolour at each end.

Main features

Authentic-looking design and practical mounting options make this nastrino suitable for display, uniform restoration or collection. Available in regulation and display formats, with options to fit different ribbon holders.

- Historic design: black and amaranto with Italian tricolour ends, matching the original appearance.
- High-quality materials: made for long-lasting colour and shape in display or uniform use.
- Formats: regulation flat format or slightly convex Elite variant for display.
- Mounting options: available with ribbon holder using clamp (morsetto) or screws, selectable in the product menu.
- Loose ribbon option: can be purchased as a loose medal ribbon for custom mounting or multi-ribbon bars.
- Suitable for: military and tactical collections, military surplus shops and duty/police uniform displays.

How to use / When it’s useful

Choose the mounting type (clamp or screws) from the dropdown before purchase, then attach the ribbon to the ribbon holder or directly to the uniform ribbon bar. For multi-ribbon setups, use a compatible multi-slot metal ribbon mount to group several nastrini.

Quick answer: select clamp for quick attachment, or screws for a more secure fit. In most cases: choose the flat regulation format for worn uniforms and the Elite convex style for museum display or collectors.

Care and notes

Keep the nastrino in good condition with simple care and the correct mounting. Note that availability can be limited due to its historical character.

- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or chemicals.
- Check and tighten screws or clamps periodically to ensure a secure fit.
- Store dry and away from direct sunlight to preserve colours.
- Purchased item represents the historical ribbon; confirm rules before wearing on active duty uniforms.

FAQ

Q: What sizes or formats are available?

A: The nastrino is offered in the regulation flat format and the slightly convex Elite variant. Choose the preferred format from the dropdown menu.

Q: Can I select the mounting type?

A: Yes. You can select a ribbon holder with a clamp (morsetto) or with screws when you place the item in the cart.

Q: Is this suitable for all uniforms?

A: It is designed to match regulation ribbon appearance and is suitable for most uniform ribbon bars, collections and displays. Confirm unit or service rules before wearing on active duty uniforms.

Q: Can I buy this as a loose ribbon?

A: Yes. There is an option to purchase the nastrino as a loose medal ribbon for custom mounting or to add to multi-ribbon mounts.

Q: How do I mount multiple ribbons together?

A: Use a compatible multi-slot metal ribbon holder designed for two or more ribbons. Select the loose ribbons and the appropriate ribbon holder for assembly.

Q: Is this an original wartime ribbon or a reproduction?

A: The product reproduces the historic design of the IV Corpo D'Armata Fronte Greco-Albanese ribbon for display and restoration purposes. It is offered for collectors and historical use—check official guidance before wearing on formal or service uniforms.

Tip: Choose the format and mounting option that best fits your needs—flat regulation for uniforms or Elite for display—and consider browsing related military surplus ribbons and ribbon holders to complete your set.
