Quick answer: use this nastrino to represent official service in the Albania mission on Guardia di Finanza uniforms, following the corps’ order of precedence. Choose the size and attachment type that match your ribbon bar or uniform standard.

In most cases, personnel mount the ribbon on a portanastrini (ribbon bar) in the correct sequence; collectors and museums may also display it on single or multi-place mounts. Select clamps for removable fitting or screws for a more permanent attachment depending on your uniform requirements.
