Product overview

The Scudetto Plastica Julia Bordo Kaki is an upper-arm shoulder patch for members, veterans, and collectors of the Brigata Alpina Julia. It is a plastic patch thermally bonded onto khaki backing, designed for the left sleeve of the brigade's ordinary (drop) uniform.

Definition: a thermally bonded plastic shoulder badge (5 x 6 cm) displaying the Friuli shield and the turretted eagle, used to show unit identity and affiliation. Limited quantities are available, making it suitable for military surplus collectors, tactical gear users, and duty-uniform restoration projects.

Main features

Clear, durable construction with authentic design details for use on uniforms and collectors' displays.

- Material: Thermally bonded plastic on khaki fabric backing for long-lasting wear.
- Design: Green field with yellow-gold border and khaki trim for high visibility and historic styling.
- Symbolism: Central turretted eagle representing strength, dignity and the Friuli region.
- Size: Approximately 5 x 6 cm — noticeable on the sleeve without being bulky.
- Secure fit: Thermal bonding keeps the patch firmly in place during regular duty and field use.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Wear the patch on the left upper arm of the drop uniform in line with Brigata Alpina Julia regulations. It serves both functional and ceremonial purposes—identifying unit affiliation while maintaining a professional appearance.

In most cases, this patch is fitted to the left sleeve of service or field uniforms, or added to collection displays and tactical jackets. It is useful for veterans replacing worn insignia, collectors of military surplus, and hobbyists restoring authentic uniforms.

Care and notes

Simple care keeps the patch presentable and preserves the bonded edge.

- Gently clean with a damp cloth and mild soap; avoid harsh chemicals or solvents.
- Store dry and flat to prevent creasing of the backing fabric.
- Follow official uniform regulations for placement and wear; ensure correct left-arm positioning.
- Limited stock: available while supplies last—consider ordering promptly if needed.

FAQ

Q: What are the dimensions of the patch?

A: The patch measures approximately 5 x 6 cm, designed to be visible on the upper left sleeve without being oversized.

Q: What material is the Scudetto made of?

A: It is made of plastic thermally bonded to a khaki fabric backing for durability and a tidy finish.

Q: Where is the patch worn?

A: The patch is intended for the left upper arm (drop uniform sleeve) of the Brigata Alpina Julia ordinary uniform, in line with unit practice.

Q: What does the turretted eagle mean?

A: The turretted eagle is a regional emblem linked to Friuli; it symbolizes strength, dignity and the historic identity of the area and the brigade.

Q: Is the patch suitable for tactical or duty use?

A: Yes. The durable construction and secure thermal bond make it suitable for regular duty wear, tactical jackets, and military surplus restoration.

Q: Is the patch widely available?

A: Quantities are limited. Demand is driven by its symbolic value and authentic construction, so availability can change quickly.

Tip: Choose the correct placement and variant for your uniform or display, and consider browsing related patches and military surplus items to complete a period-accurate set.
