Product overview

The Unified Protector Libya NATO Non Article 5 medal is a service medal issued to Italian military personnel who served during Operation Unified Protector in Libya. It is aimed at veterans, active-duty service members, and collectors of military surplus, tactical and police memorabilia.

Definition: The Unified Protector Libya NATO Non Article 5 medal is a recognition awarded for qualified service during Operation Unified Protector (23 March 2011–31 October 2011).

Main features

Clear, symbolic design and two wearable sizes make this medal suitable for display, dress uniforms, or a military collection.

- Distinctive design: Combines the ISAF ribbon with a bronzed metal clasp marked OUP-Libya/Libye.
- Two formats: Available in large and miniature sizes, selectable from the product menu.
- Service recognition: Awarded for 30 consecutive days or 60 cumulative days of qualifying service during the operation.
- Symbolic value: Honors courage, duty and service in the region during the operation.
- Available to purchase: Limited stock for collectors and veterans who wish to own this piece of military history.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: This medal is for eligible personnel to wear on dress occasions or for collectors to display as part of a military surplus or tactical gear collection. It serves as an emblem of service and remembrance.

In most cases, recipients earned the medal for service between 23 March 2011 and 31 October 2011 within the defined operational area (Libyan territory, territorial waters, airspace, and the specified central Mediterranean sector). It is suitable for ceremonies, veteran displays, or as part of a duty uniform set for formal events.

Care and notes

Keep the medal in good condition by storing and handling it carefully; choose the format that fits your intended use (wearing or display).

- Store in a dry, cool place away from direct sunlight.
- Clean gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners or chemicals.
- Check the size option before purchase: large for full dress, miniature for ribbons and display cases.
- Limited availability: stock may run out due to demand and historical interest.
