How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: wear it on the chest of a uniform, jacket, or display board to show affiliation or for collection purposes. The badge fits standard chest placement and is visible at typical uniform distances.

In most cases, it is useful for ceremonial wear, veteran reunions, reenactments, or as part of a military surplus collection. It also works well on tactical or duty outerwear when appropriate for display.

Care and notes

Simple care will help preserve the badge's appearance and attachment.

- Wipe gently with a soft, dry cloth; avoid abrasive cleaners.
- Check the attachment regularly to prevent loss during activity.
- Store in a cool, dry place away from prolonged sunlight.
- Not a protective or safety device; intended for identification and display only.
