Product overview

The Sciabola Sottufficiale Esercito Fanteria is a ceremonial infantry sabre issued to Marescialli of the Esercito Italiano and intended for military personnel and qualified collectors. Definition: a ceremonial infantry non-commissioned officer sabre used for formal duty, parade and historical display.

Hand-finished and nickel-plated, this sabre combines traditional styling and durable materials for dress uniform use, collection or military surplus interest by tactical and duty enthusiasts.

Main features

Detailed construction and finishes designed for ceremonial use and long-term preservation.

- Grip and guard: Steel cappetta and guard divided into two symmetric branches with four internal grooves for a secure, ergonomic hold.
- Blade material: Made in Acciaio AISI 420 for strength and consistent finish.
- Nickel-plated metalwork: Cappetta, guard and scabbard receive a nickel finish for corrosion resistance and a refined appearance.
- Steel scabbard: Scabbard in steel with two straps and decorative bells placed at 7 cm and 15 cm from the mouth for an orderly, balanced look.
- Restricted sale: Available only to members of the Esercito Italiano or collectors holding a prefectoral license (ex art. 28 TULPS).

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use this sabre for ceremonial duties, parade, dress uniform presentation or as a museum-quality display piece. In most cases, it is carried or displayed rather than used as a functional cutting tool.

Ideal for Marescialli and other authorised personnel during formal events, and for verified collectors of military surplus or tactical memorabilia who hold the required license. It is not intended for field combat use.

Care and notes

Simple care preserves appearance and function; follow documentation rules for purchase and ownership.

- Wipe nickel-plated surfaces with a soft, dry cloth after handling to remove oils and prevent spotting.
- Avoid abrasive cleaners and prolonged exposure to moisture; store in a dry place to protect metal finishes.
- Sales are restricted: purchase requires a copy of military ID (tesserino) or a prefectoral license ex art. 28 TULPS for collectors.
- For delivery, you may designate the Comando di servizio as the shipping address when required by regulations.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Sciabola Sottufficiale Esercito Fanteria?

A: The sabre is reserved for members of the Esercito Italiano and collectors with a prefectoral license under art. 28 TULPS. Proof of eligibility is required before sale.

Q: What material is the sabre made from?

A: The sabre is manufactured in Acciaio AISI 420. Metal parts including the cappetta, guard and scabbard are nickel-plated to increase durability and weather resistance.

Q: How do I prove military membership to purchase?

A: You must provide a copy of your tesserino militare (military ID). Alternatively, collectors must provide the prefectoral license specified by art. 28 TULPS.

Q: What are the scabbard's distinctive details?

A: The steel scabbard has two straps and is fitted with two bells positioned at 7 cm and 15 cm from the mouth, offering a balanced and period-appropriate appearance.

Q: Is the nickel finish purely decorative?

A: No. While the nickel finish provides a refined look, it also helps protect metal surfaces from atmospheric corrosion, improving long-term appearance.

Q: Can this sabre be used in active duty or as a cutting tool?

A: This item is intended for ceremonial and display purposes. It is designed as a dress/duty sabre rather than a functional field weapon.

Tip: Choose the correct variant and any required documentation before ordering, and check related ceremonial and military surplus items to complete your uniform or collection.
