Product overview

The Sciabola Marescialli Guardia di Finanza Manico Radica is a ceremonial sabre made for members of the Guardia di Finanza and the Scuola Allievi Marescialli. It is intended for service personnel and verified collectors who meet legal purchasing requirements.

Definition: a ceremonial Marescialli sabre with a straight blade and a radica (burlwood) handle, reflecting the Corps' heraldry and tradition. Suitable for military surplus collectors, tactical display, and duty or police ceremonial use.

Main features

Well-crafted and historically styled, this sabre combines authentic visual details with practical handling features.

- Straight blade with heraldic emblem: blade reproduces the Guardia di Finanza coat of arms.
- Steel guard: split into two nearly symmetrical branches for protection and balanced look.
- Radica (burlwood) grip: handle with four internal grooves to fit the fingers and improve grip.
- Metal scabbard with flame emblem: scabbard bears the Guardia di Finanza flame motif.
- Traditional ceremonial design: matches the form used for Marescialli and parallels the infantry non-commissioned officers' sabre.

How to use / When it's useful

Quick answer: this sabre is primarily for ceremonial duties, parades, official uniforms, and authenticated collections. It is not sold as a general retail item and is intended for personnel or licensed collectors.

In most cases, service members will use it for formal occasions or presentation, while verified collectors may keep it for display or historical study. Purchase is restricted and requires pre-verification of service location and buyer identification.

Care and notes

Keep the sabre in a dry environment and handle it as a ceremonial piece; routine cleaning and safe display will preserve its finish and emblem details.

- Delivery: approximately 20 working days from payment.
- Sale restricted to Scuola Allievi Marescialli members or Guardia di Finanza personnel; collectors need a copy of the license ex art. 28 TULPS.
- To complete a purchase you must email the Command office where you serve and the buyer's codice fiscale for verification.
- Store the sabre in its scabbard and avoid exposure to moisture or strong impacts.
