Product overview

The Sciabola Sovrintendente Capo Polizia di Stato is a ceremonial sabre made for members of the Polizia di Stato and qualified collectors. It is a formal duty item used for ceremonies and official displays, featuring the Polizia di Stato heraldic emblem.

Definition: a ceremonial sabre bearing the Polizia di Stato emblem, designed for service use and licensed collectors. Sale is reserved to Corpo di Polizia di Stato personnel or collectors with a valid art. 28 TULPS license.

Main features

Well-crafted and symbolic, this sabre combines traditional styling with clear police insignia for formal occasions and collectors of military surplus or duty gear.

- Semicurved blade: Traditional semicurved profile with the Polizia di Stato heraldic emblem reproduced on the blade.
- Heraldic emblem: Emblem engraved on both blade and metal scabbard as a mark of identity and pride.
- Maresciallo-style guard: Hilt inspired by the Maresciallo pattern, giving a formal and authoritative appearance.
- Knurled grip: Textured grip for a secure and comfortable hold during ceremonies.
- Metal scabbard: Decorative metal scabbard fitted with the Polizia di Stato emblem for presentation and protection.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: Use this sabre for official ceremonies, parades, formal duty and as a collectible display piece. It is primarily ceremonial and not intended for combat use.

In most cases, the sabre is carried or displayed by Polizia di Stato personnel during formal events or kept by verified collectors as part of a military surplus or police memorabilia collection. Purchase requires verification of eligibility and will ship to an approved delivery address.

Care and notes

Keep the sabre in good condition by following simple storage and handling guidance; note the sale and delivery requirements below.

- Store dry and protected in its metal scabbard to prevent corrosion.
- Handle as a ceremonial item; it is intended for presentation and display rather than active use.
- Sale restricted: buyers must submit a copy of their Polizia di Stato ID card or indicate the Command post as delivery location.
- Collectors must provide a copy of the license in accordance with art. 28 TULPS.
- Delivery time: approximately 20 working days from payment confirmation.

FAQ

Q: Who can buy the Sciabola Sovrintendente Capo Polizia di Stato?

A: The sabre is reserved for members of the Corpo di Polizia di Stato and collectors who hold a valid art. 28 TULPS license. Proof of eligibility is required before sale.

Q: What documents are required to complete the purchase?

A: Police buyers must send a copy of their service ID (tesserino) or list the Command post as the delivery address. Collectors must submit a copy of the art. 28 TULPS license.

Q: How long does delivery take?

A: Delivery is typically about 20 working days from the date of payment, subject to stock availability and verification of required documents.

Q: Is the sabre functional or only decorative?

A: The item is primarily a ceremonial weapon designed to represent honor and prestige; it is intended for formal use and display, not active duty combat.

Q: Can I return the sabre if I am not satisfied?

A: Return policies vary by seller. Contact customer service for full details on returns, eligibility and any restocking conditions.

Q: Are there limited quantities available?

A: Yes. This sabre is stocked in limited numbers and in high demand among Polizia di Stato members and collectors of military surplus and police gear.

Tip: Choose the correct variant and confirm delivery to your Command post if required; browse related ceremonial and duty items to complete your formal kit or collection.
