How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: pin it on the lapel of a civilian jacket or coat for ceremonies, official visits, or formal events to add a discreet symbol of recognition. The clasp is designed for standard lapel thicknesses.

In most cases, wear it as a respectful accessory rather than an official state decoration. It is ideal for collectors of military surplus, duty or police-style insignia, and anyone seeking a refined, low-profile emblem for formal attire.

Care and notes

Keep the pin in good condition by storing it safely and avoiding contact with strong chemicals; note that availability may be limited due to demand.

- Store in a small box or pouch to prevent scratches and loss — the 1 cm size is easy to misplace.
- Handle the clasp gently to avoid bending or loosening over time.
