Quick answer: Use this belt as a primary duty or tactical belt for carrying holsters, pouches and light load-bearing gear during patrols, training or outdoor activities. It fastens with the three-prong buckle and is tightened with Velcro for a stable fit.

In most cases, the VH 2V58 performs well as a field-ready military or police belt where durability and quick release are priorities. It is also a practical option for outdoor and security work where abrasion resistance and easy adjustment matter.
