Product overview

The Spalline GUS Grande Uniforme Maresciallo Carabinieri are shoulder epaulettes made for the Grande Uniforme of a Maresciallo in the Carabinieri. They are intended for officers who need an authentic, durable shoulder insignia for dress and formal duty uniforms.

Definition: these are a pair of metal-backed epaulettes with layered fringes and an internal cotton pad designed for comfort and historical accuracy.

Main features

Precisely manufactured with traditional materials and construction to match the historical Grande Uniforme style.

- Metal backing (piattino): sturdy tinplate base holding the fringes in place.
- Six turns of fringe: three outer turns in white-silver metal thread and three inner turns in bleached linen thread.
- Fringe length: 83–85 mm including the border, arranged in three concentric turns.
- Padded comfort: small tubular white cotton pad filled with corded cotton under the fringes for wearability.
- Sewn construction: all components are stitched to the metal plate for secure attachment.
- Pair included: set contains two spalline, one for each shoulder.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: attach these spalline to the shoulder area of the Grande Uniforme for formal ceremonies, inspections, and official duties. They are intended specifically for Maresciallo rank uniforms in the Carabinieri.

In most cases, they are used on full-dress uniforms and kept as part of a duty or ceremonial kit. Their construction balances a traditional appearance with the comfort needed for extended wear during official events or parades.

Care and notes

Keep the spalline in good condition with careful handling and simple maintenance suitable for metal and textile components.

- Spot clean the textile parts with a damp cloth; avoid soaking the metal thread.
- Do not machine wash, tumble dry, or iron directly on the fringes or metal thread.
- Store flat in a dry place to prevent bending of the metal plate or crushing the padding.
- Handle by the plate edges to reduce wear on the decorative fringe.

FAQ

Q: What materials are used for these spalline?

A: The spalline have a tinplate (piattino) base, outer fringes in white-silver metal thread, inner fringes in bleached linen thread, and a small white cotton tubular pad filled with corded cotton.

Q: Are the spalline comfortable to wear?

A: Yes. A small padded cotton cushion beneath the fringes provides extra comfort for extended wear during duties or ceremonies.

Q: How are the spalline attached to the uniform?

A: The fringes and padding are sewn to the metal plate (piattino), which is then secured to the uniform shoulder area according to standard tailoring for the Grande Uniforme.

Q: Will they fit all Maresciallo uniform sizes?

A: The spalline are designed to match the Grande Uniforme style for Maresciallo rank and are made to fit standard shoulder mounting for that uniform type.

Q: How many spalline come in the package?

A: The set includes two spalline, one for each shoulder.

Q: Are these spalline historically accurate or replica?

A: These spalline are produced following the traditional construction and materials used for Grande Uniforme Maresciallo Carabinieri to preserve the uniform’s historical appearance.

Tip: Choose the correct variant for the Grande Uniforme Maresciallo and check size/fit with your tailor before purchase; browse related military surplus, police, and duty uniform items to complete the set.
