Product overview

The Uniforme Ordinaria Maschile is the standard male duty uniform of the Arma dei Carabinieri, intended for serving Carabinieri personnel. Definition: this is the official everyday dress uniform in black fresco wool for ceremonial and duty use within the corps.

Made in black fresco wool for breathability and durability, the uniform combines traditional styling with practical details for comfort on duty. It is a duty/police uniform suitable for formal service, inspections and official events; collectors may purchase only with the required prefectural license.

Main features

Key design and material highlights of the Uniforme Ordinaria Maschile.

- Fabric: black fresco wool—breathable and hard-wearing for use in multiple seasons.
- Jacket: shoulder straps, four front pockets, red sleeve cuffs and red piping on the lapels, rear vent for ease of movement.
- Buttons: nickel-plated with the Arma dei Carabinieri raised emblem.
- Trousers: two front waist pinces for fit, two side pockets and two rear pockets (female variant has one right rear pocket).
- Pants treated for a permanent crease to maintain a sharp, professional appearance.
- Made to order with tailored measurement process to ensure correct fit.

How to use / When it’s useful

Quick answer: this uniform is for active Carabinieri personnel for daily duty, formal duties and official occasions. In most cases, purchase is restricted and subject to verification.

Orders are processed for serving members after verification of service ID or service certificate via the site contact form or by registering the delivery address as the barracks where you serve. Collectors may buy only after submitting a prefectural license (ex art. 28 TULPS).
